1 September 2017

1. Addition of ETPs to the Living Super Investment Menu

From 1 September 2017, ING Living Super will add 79 ETPs to its Investment Menu.

This is in response to customer feedback to increase the variety of Exchange Traded Products we offer. We have taken this on board and are proud to announce an inclusion a range of Exchange Traded Products that not only encapsulate markets and industries around the globe; but also utilise leverage and hedging to cater to the complex investor.

In addition to this, 4 ETPs will be closed to new monies, listed below:

Ticker	ING ETP Menu Name
AGF	AMP Capital China Growth (AGF)
AMH	AMCIL Limited (AMH)
HHY	Hastings High Yield Fund (HHY)
WIC	Westoz Investment Company Limited (WIC)

The 3 ETPs below have moved tiers as part of the Exchange Traded Product Review :

Ticker	ING ETP Menu Name	Tier Allocation (Current)	Tier Allocation (New)
QUS	BetaShares FTSE RAFI US 1000 ETF	1	2
IHVV	iShares S&P 500 AUD Hedged	1	2
VSO	Vanguard MSCI Australian Small Companies Index	2	3

For the full list of Exchange Traded Products, please refer to www.ing.com.au/pdf/superannuation/Shares\_ETFs\_LICs.pdf

What does this mean for you?

You may be interested in reviewing your investment option selection to include one or more of the new Exchange Traded Products. If you are invested in one of the ETP's that is being closed to new monies, you can keep your investment or sell your shareholdings, however you will not be able to purchase any further holdings. ## 2. ING DIRECT Superannuation fund name change to ING Superannuation fund

ING DIRECT is progressively changing our name and logo to ING. This will start in August and wrap up in December 2017.

Our fund name will have changed on 1 September 2017, but not to worry, the accounts and services you expect from us will not change. The fund's name will change to the "ING Superannuation Fund" and we will have a new web address – ing.com.au, with new logos on buildings, advertising and marketing materials, customer emails and letters, account statements and on our website.

What does this mean for you?

Keep in mind that our name is changing and you will progressively start to see new documentation with the new name. Everything else will remain the same.
